

Hello,

Feel free to use this linesheet, wholesale order form and terms as inspiration to create your own unique set of documents.

I'd prefer you don't copy the order form and terms design or text verbatim but to use as a reference. The information included might not be appropriate for your business or workflow. There might be items or information missing that you might want to include or delete.

My terms are likely to evolve as my business grows or changes. Visit the websites of other jewelers or craftspeople to see what kind of variation in terms exist so you can craft your own.

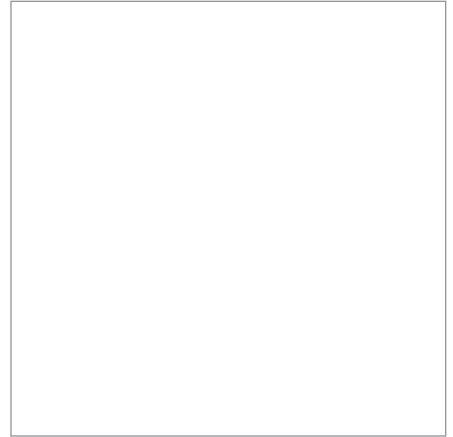

Thank you,
Jane Pellicciotto

I make miniature sculptures to wear that reflect the perfectly unfinished and beautifully imperfect in all of us. I play with line and form, contrast and surface texture to create design-driven jewelry with a subtle wit and openness, inviting discovery and interpretation. People who wear my jewelry are curious, intelligent, adventurous souls.

All work is by hand and deliberately unique even within the same item.
Please expect some variation from photos.

ORDERING
